Annual Conference.

More than 200 delegates and guests registered for the thirteenth annual conference on the weights and measures of the United States, which opened a four-day session at the na-chase of vegetables, berries and veterans of three wars will gather on 16th street near Alaska avenue Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock to dedicate the memorial trees to be planted along the roadway in memory of the men and women of Washington who died in service during the late war, the services being under the auspices of the District of Columbia department of the American Legion. ment of the American Legion.

Assistant Secretary of War Crow-ell and District Commissioner Brownlow will make brief addresses and the Marine Band will play. In all there will be more than 500 memorial trees, each marked with a small bronze tablet giving the name of the person whose memory it perpetuates. The tablet will be nailed on the tree chosen for the ceremony with four nails, one driven by a representative of the Grand Army of the Republic, one by an officer of the United Con-federate Veterans, one by an officer of the United Spanish War Veterans of the United Spanish War Veterans and the fourth by the department commander of the American Legion. The head of each nail will bear the emblem of the organization it represents.

The program has been arranged by
